

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

When I called my local Sinclair affiliate, KGAN in Cedar Rapids, to express my concern about this issue, I asked if the station was going to air the program. The company rep I spoke to said they had no choice but to air the program. She agreed that consolidation is a great problem.

Please consider this an official complaint about Sinclair's national, corporate control of my local media.
